PREMIUM SPIRIT RELEASE

RELEASE NOVEMBER 3, 2012

With enthusiasm for unique, premium spirits growing each year, BC Liquor Stores searches the globe for rare, highly recommended selections for the annual Spirit Release.

The 2012 Spirit Release features a large collection of whiskies from around the world and gorgeous 21 year old rum from Panama. There are whiskies from traditional regions like Scotland to emerging market leaders like Japan and France. These unique products will appeal to both the whisky enthusiast and the avid collector.

This year's collection of premier spirits is an opportunity to explore the ever changing world of whisky. The Classic Six malts are a great representation of the Scotch whisky regions. There are award winning whiskies from Japan and extremely allocated and sought-after bourbons from Kentucky. There is also one of the rarest old whiskies in the world; the 70 year old Glenlivet from Gordan and MacPhail.

The broadest selection of product will be featured at the 39th & Cambie Signature BC Liquor Store. The rarest of the selection are available in limited quantities, so some bottle restrictions will apply. For more information visit www.bcliquorstores.com.

GORDON & MACPHAIL GENERATIONS GLENLIVET 70 YEARS OLD

253997

2 bottle limit

$7088.00

Only 175 - 200ml bottles were produced for worldwide sale.

"Nose: the very first notes have a diced ginger... As that fades, a recognisable trait of great age begins to creep in: something akin to exotic fruit... Taste: ...Leave for about 15 minutes, then start tasting: a thick amalgamation of natural caramels and barley: shows almost a nougat quality at times with the toffee carrying with it a squeeze of sultana;...Finish: long. Not a threat of bitterness: just magnificent oak. Moves into a mocha mode. And as it oxidises, the creamier it becomes, helped along the way by an extra quarter spoonful of Demerara every now and again...; Balance. ...Like an ancient glacier, it is malt on the move: so slowly, it is imperceptible... This whisky seemingly defies nature... For the lucky ones amongst us, it is a unique journey of a lifetime. "

MACALLAN MASTERS OF PHOTOGRAPHY 2

324731

1 bottle limit

$1100.00

Very limited worldwide availability – only 1000 produced

This unique collaboration with Albert Watson, winner of the prestigious Royal Photographic Society's 2010 Centenary Medal, involves a bottle of The Macallan 20 year old sherry oak with a hand-signed portfolio and The Macallan's exceptional 1946 whisky with a one-off platinum print. Watson was invited by The Macallan to weave a visual narrative of the long journey made from acorn to glass to eventually produce a rich and complex single malt.

The outcome is a stunning anthology which captures the genuine emotional connection between the photographer and his subjects: the striking landscapes, beautiful settings and the spectacular weather patterns. Watson's photographic prints exude an air of drama and romance, trailing a stylish couple taking a voyage to unearth the key secret behind The Macallan. These are coupled with intimate shots of the time served master craftsmen of the cooperage and dramatic stills of the surrounding wilderness.

SCOTLAND – ORKNEY

HIGHLAND PARK THOR

Concentrated and forceful, with bold waves of aromatic smoke. This whisky immediately commands your attention from the first encounter. Its high strength grabs the palate, refusing to let go. As its big flavours swirl around the mouth, some softer, sweeter notes develop, giving Thor an unexpected layer of complexity and depth.

185686

2 bottle limit

$250.00

SCOTLAND – ISLAY

PORT ELLEN - DOUGLAS LAING 32 YEAR OLD & RARE

Opens richly spiced, carrying a fresh leather character – still surprisingly peaty for its age with an earthy, smoked grist character. The palate is initially sweetly peated and runs to a smoke, toffee and spiced character – each pushing for more attention until they harmoniously join in the long finish, with a salty licorice, soot and a charcoal ashy quality.

LAPHROAIG 18 YEAR OLD

"Absolutely brimming with character and panache, from the first molecules escaping the bottle as you pour to the very final ember dying on the middle of your tongue. This is as noisily Islay as a sky blackening invasion of White-fronted Geese or rain pelting against your cottage windows. Relentlessly first class."

LAPHROAIG CAIRDEAS ORIGIN

With a nose that constantly evolves and is full of flavour with a quick hint of concentrated orange that moves quickly into huge peat flavours, ashy and dusty with hazelnut. The flavours evolve slowly on the palate and with great body it begins with white pepper moving into an earthy peaty flavour, some slight salt then purple heather. Huge creamy apricots that last and last and it ends with some charred damp wood.

ARDBEG GALILEO ANNUAL LIMITED RELEASE

The nose has soot, tar, spicy toffee, butterkist popcorn with hints of ripe, exotic tropical fruits (banana, mango and lychee). The taste is a chewy/oily texture which leads in to sweet, creamy fudge, smoked apricots smothered in cream, ripe banana and lots of spices – cinnamon, clove and aniseed. The finish is smoky, but sweet, and lingers long in the mouth, again drawing the mind back to rich, smoked fruits.

BRUICHLADDICH OCTOMORE 5.0

For this, the fifth annual release of Octomore dialed up the peat to a new record, 169PPM, but the spirit retains the elegance and poise delivered by a tall, long-necked Bruichladdich stills and the creamy vanillins of American-oak maturation – the latest expression of what has become the new cult Islay.

BRUICHLADDICH ISLAY BARLEY 2006

This is a limited release and the ultimate single, single malt: single barley variety, single harvest from a single field grown, matured and bottled on the Isle of Islay. Unpeated, for maximum barley flavour with Islay spring water...non-chill-filtered and colouring free. The texture of the spirit is remarkably smooth for such a youngster. The mouth feel is quite irresistible; it's fresh and zesty.

KILCHOMAN MACHIRE BAY

Kilchoman Farm Distillery is the first new distillery established on Islay in 124 years.

"The palate...gristy barley followed by light coffee, vanilla and gently oiled peat followed by hints of fish and brine. Very full with the Oloroso finish...beautiful tropical fruit, spice and herbal moments. Lovely length with a faultless bitter/sweet balanced finish and a long, dry peat after taste." – Chris Goodrum

BUNNAHABAIN 18 YO

A most welcoming fragrant nose releases honeyed nuts and a slightly sea-induced salty tang. Rich toffee and leathery oak aromas can be sensed upon further inspection. Beautifully balanced, the palate is influenced by mellow sherried nuts and shavings of the finest natural oak wood. A finish of dry notes with mixed spices fading into a light salt and sherry finale.

SCOTLAND – ARRAN

THE ARRAN MALT THE DEVIL'S PUNCH BOWL

First-ever combination of peated and un-peated Arran, which results in a delightful combination of classic dried fruits along with spiced-wood aromas. A touch of butterscotch and orange zest with light peat in the background. Over time, a subtle touch of tobacco leaf and green tea emerges.

SCOTLAND – HIGHLAND/SPEYSIDE

BEN RIACH PEDRO XIMENEZ

“Nose: a delicate PX influence? This is magnificent...vanilla and lime; ...buzz of spice. All clean: not a single bitter or off note...wow! Taste mouth-filling barley then a spreading of a sugary but fruity theme... a slow burn of increasing spice; finish: long, absolutely thick with butterscotch barely, framed by a constant drone of spicy, sugared grape.”

GLENFIDDICH 40 YEAR OLD

The nose is beautifully rich and aromatic with layer upon layer of dried fruits, dark chocolate, roasted coffee and ripe black cherries. Occasional wafts of gentle wood smoke, polished leather and cloves. The initial flavours are intense dried fruits, Christmas cake, dates, raisins and stewed apples. Over time slightly dryish oak notes appear with some bitter chocolate and just the merest hint of peat. The finish is incredibly long lasting and complex – a truly memorable experience.

TOMINTOUL WITH A PEATY TANG

TOBERMORY 15YO

Dripping with fresh, clean, ultra high quality oloroso, there remains enough tangy malt to underscore the island location; a fabulous marriage of juicy grape and thick, uncompromising malt. It is an arm wrestle for supremacy between the two... but it is the delicate spices which win; salty chocolate raisin; a tang to the oils on both nose and finish suggests an over widened middle. But such is the quality of the sherry butts and the intensity of the salt-stained malt, all is forgiven.

BALBLAIR 1978

"evidence of great hangs all over this nose...lush delivery offers up an improbably malty juiciness...countered by a spicy oakiness which offsets with great charm the salivating barley chorus and layers of delicate fruit and almost nutty vanilla.. such is the clarity of the vanilla-led silkiness. Again, great age is never in doubt. Towards the very death the wisps of smoke found on the nose make a lingering reappearance...just one of those drams that exudes greatness and charm in equal measures... Glorious malt."

GLENMORANGIE ARTEIN

"Nose: to start there's some bracken before it sweetens into hard toffee and then waves of fruits. All very exotic and fragrant with notes of sweet vanilla and chocolate. Palate: Sweet, there's a good elegant maturity and lots of spice. The Finish: Rosehip syrup. ...Unlike other double matured samples here this shows integration and is distillate rather than wood driven."

“Nose: ...citrus, the most delicate smoke imaginable, sharp barley..., toasty vanilla...hazelnut, ... honey...perfection... taste: the sugars arrive: ...Demerera. This is followed by a salty...barley at varying intensity and then a slow but magnificently complete delivery of spice...finish: ...spices continue, the vanillas dovetail with the malt and the fruit displaying a puckering, lively intensity. Ridiculously long... by far and away one of the great whiskies of 2012, absolutely exploding from the glass with vitality, charisma and class.”

WEMYSS THE HIVE 12 YEAR OLD

This is a blend of malt whiskies, with an emphasis on 12 year old Speyside malt from both fresh and refill sherry casks. Nosing reveals sweetness and a hint of spice; reminiscent of fresh honey, toffee apples and cinnamon sticks. The rich, honeyed sweetness continues onto the palate; dominating over aromas of dessert spice and candied fruits. The lengthy finish is smooth and sweetly satisfying.

VATTED MALTS/BLENDS AND SINGLE GRAINS

CLAN DENNY DOUGLAS LAING 48 YEAR OLD CAMBUS SINGLE GRAIN

Look at the colour! On the nose there is bourbon, vanilla and cereal based, spicy zesty sweetness. The palate is perfectly weighed – tinglingly spiced on the tongue with oak, honey and more of that citric zestiness – all leading to a lightly camphored, still vanilla'd and a late buttery finish.

RUM NATION PANAMA 21 YEAR OLD DECANTER

On the nose it is fresh, fragrant and sweet with dried figs and dates...The palate is soft, velvety, never pungent or, on the contrary, too thick. Flavours of chocolate, candied oranges and orange liqueur are found with dried figs, dates, and mixed tropical fruit hints. Just a touch of pepperiness in the finish contrasts the very smooth, moderately sweet and easy character. The soft and fresh style is quite unusual for such an old rum, which remains stimulating and lively, and devoid of excessive wood influence.
